

Preschool Newsletter

We made it through January, now if we can just make it through one more month with not too much snow we will be doing good.

Because of snow days the last day of preschool will be May 26th.

We have a lot of work to do until then and we are working very hard. This week we will continue nursery rhymes and we will also decorate our bags for our friendship party. Please talk with your child about words and what sound they begin with.
